Sorbonne Université was created on January 1st, 2018 from the merger of Paris-Sorbonne and Pierre and Marie Curie (UPMC) universities. As a public institution, it fulfils the public service calling of French higher education, research and innovation.

The Faculty of Arts & Humanities at Sorbonne Université is today the largest and most complete faculty in France, in the field of arts, languages, literature, social sciences and humanities. Committed to the transmission of a humanist culture, its pedagogical excellence is based on the recognized quality of its research to offer the most complete and innovative teaching.

Dates and Deadlines for International Students coming from USA, Canada, New Zealand and Australia

The academic year at Sorbonne Université starts in September and is divided into two semesters, the first term ends near the end of January and the second term near the beginning of June :

- For the fall term (the first semester) the deadline for nominating students is May 1st and for students application May 15st.
- For the spring term (the second semester), the nomination deadline is November 1st and for students application November 15st.

Courses Catalogue

All courses offered by Sorbonne Université can be found on the website, on either of the following links: <http://lettres.sorbonne-universite.fr/ufr> and <http://vof.paris-sorbonne.fr/fr/index.html> The University has its departments divided in different UFR's, which is an abbreviation of Unité de Formation et de Recherche (Unit of Education and Research), which corresponds to the different departments of humanities and arts.

Languages of Instruction

At Sorbonne Université, most courses are taught in French, with the exception of certain language departments where courses are often taught in both the learned language and French.

Sorbonne Université accepts students with a B2 level of French, however, a C1 level is highly recommended for students that are not studying in a language department. Especially for those studying History, History of Art, Philosophy and Sociology, a good understanding of the French language is necessary.

General Information

Academic grades and notation :

At Sorbonne Université, all our marks are out of 20. For information, Sorbonne Université has one the most difficult grading systems in France. It is important to note that a 10/20 is a good grade and that it stands for the passing grade. The credit part refers to the number of European credits the course provides. It is based on the 30 credits per semester system that French students must pass to validate one semester. It does not refer to the number of hours taken for one course. When noted "Attended", it means that your student attended the course but didn't pass the final exam. You can freely choose to give them the ECTS or not. When noted "Passed", it means that your student attended the course and passed the exam, but there is no grade because the professor doesn't give grades to their students. The local grade (/20) is the most relevant information you should consider to validate your students' semester/year at Sorbonne Université.

Local grade out of 20	ECTS grade	Interpretation of grades
16 and more	A	Excellent
14-15	B	Very good
12-13	C	Good
11	D	Satisfactory
10	E	Sufficient
8-9	FX	Fail
0-7	F	Fail
